

Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review

Role and Overview

The Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review \(JCARR\) reviews proposed new, amended, and rescinded rules to ensure that the rules do not exceed the scope of the rule-making authority of that agency; that the rules do not conflict with a rule of that agency or another rule-making agency; that the rules do not conflict with the intent of the legislature; and that the rule-making agency has prepared a complete and accurate rule summary and fiscal analysis. The committee consists of five state representatives and five state senators. In odd-numbered years the chairperson is a House member and in even-numbered years, the chairperson is a Senate member. JCARR has a staff of five and an annual budget of approximately $380,000.

Joint Committee on Agency Rule Review

PROGRAM SERIES 01: Administrative Rule Review

This program series supports the review of proposed new, amended, and rescinded rules to ensure that the rules do not exceed the scope of the rule-making authority of that agency, that such rules do not conflict other existing rules or the intent of the legislature.

Program 01.01: Administrative Rule Review

Provides for the review of rules to ensure the rules' consistency with the scope of the relevant agency's rule-making authority and confirm the proposed rules do not conflict other existing rules or the intent of the legislature.

What the Budget Buys:

As required by Section 107.03(B) of the Revised Code, the Governor has made no alterations to the funding requests of agencies of the legislative branch of government. Recommended amounts are as requested by the agency.

- Supports the review of approximately 12,000 rules annually to ensure they are complete, accurate and consistent with current law, rules and legislative intent; and
- Supports five staff positions responsible for the administration of agency activities.
